Section 5 of the guide: Buying property in Dubai from the UK: what it costs, how to move the money, and what HMRC expects

How I help

I bought in Dubai myself, so I know where the process slows down. I help you check the project and the developer, prepare the documents your bank and your accountant will ask for, and track every payment through to registration. The fee depends on the deal and on the services you need, and I quote it after our first conversation.
