Section 2 of the guide: Tax on a Dubai property: what owners need to report and pay back home

Back home: your own country decides

Written by Usama Haj Yahia, founder of U810 Properties | Last updated: 19.11.2026

Each country sets its own tax rules. Many countries tax their residents on income from anywhere in the world, and that can include rent from a property abroad. Other countries mainly tax income that arises inside the country.

So the sentence "there is no tax in Dubai" does not tell you what you owe at home.

The full guide on the site: u810properties.com/en-guide-dubai-property-tax

A question about tax back home?

Tell me about your situation, and together we will work out what to ask your accountant.

Send a WhatsApp message →

This information is general and correct as of the update date. The section for tax residents of Israel is based on the Income Tax Ordinance and on publications of the Israel Tax Authority and the Ministry of Finance. It is not tax advice and is not a substitute for an accountant or tax adviser. U810 is not an accountant or a tax adviser, and connects you with professionals when needed.