Section 4 of the guide: Tax on a Dubai property: what owners need to report and pay back home

Tax treaties

Written by Usama Haj Yahia, founder of U810 Properties | Last updated: 19.11.2026

Tax treaties decide which country may tax what, and how to avoid paying twice. The UAE had signed 146 such agreements by the end of 2024, according to The National. Check with your accountant whether your country has one and what it says.

Countries that tax residents on foreign income usually give a credit for tax paid abroad. But when no tax was paid in the UAE, there may be nothing to offset, so a treaty does not necessarily exempt you from tax at home.

The full guide on the site: u810properties.com/en-guide-dubai-property-tax

A question about tax back home?

Tell me about your situation, and together we will work out what to ask your accountant.

Send a WhatsApp message →

This information is general and correct as of the update date. The section for tax residents of Israel is based on the Income Tax Ordinance and on publications of the Israel Tax Authority and the Ministry of Finance. It is not tax advice and is not a substitute for an accountant or tax adviser. U810 is not an accountant or a tax adviser, and connects you with professionals when needed.