Section 5 of the guide: Tax on a Dubai property: what owners need to report and pay back home

Why "tax-free" is not the whole story

Written by Usama Haj Yahia, founder of U810 Properties | Last updated: 19.11.2026

Marketing material about Dubai sometimes says "100% tax-free". Even if that is true in Dubai, it says nothing about what you need to report or pay in your own country. So it is not a good idea to build a plan on that sentence without checking.

The full guide on the site: u810properties.com/en-guide-dubai-property-tax

A question about tax back home?

Tell me about your situation, and together we will work out what to ask your accountant.

Send a WhatsApp message →

This information is general and correct as of the update date. The section for tax residents of Israel is based on the Income Tax Ordinance and on publications of the Israel Tax Authority and the Ministry of Finance. It is not tax advice and is not a substitute for an accountant or tax adviser. U810 is not an accountant or a tax adviser, and connects you with professionals when needed.