Section 7 of the guide: Tax on a Dubai property: what owners need to report and pay back home

What I check when I guide you

Written by Usama Haj Yahia, founder of U810 Properties | Last updated: 19.11.2026

I am not an accountant, and I do not calculate tax or advise you how to report. When I guide you, I help you keep from the start the documents the accountant will ask for, remind you to check your reporting obligation as early as the year you start transferring money, and connect you with professionals when needed.

The full guide on the site: u810properties.com/en-guide-dubai-property-tax

A question about tax back home?

Tell me about your situation, and together we will work out what to ask your accountant.

Send a WhatsApp message →

This information is general and correct as of the update date. The section for tax residents of Israel is based on the Income Tax Ordinance and on publications of the Israel Tax Authority and the Ministry of Finance. It is not tax advice and is not a substitute for an accountant or tax adviser. U810 is not an accountant or a tax adviser, and connects you with professionals when needed.