Section 3 of the guide: Where to live in Dubai with a family: the family areas, and what each one offers

Arabian Ranches

- What it is: a community of villas and townhouses with plenty of green space, a golf course, lakes, and tennis and basketball courts. It was built in phases: Arabian Ranches, Arabian Ranches 2 and Arabian Ranches 3.
- Schools: Jumeirah English Speaking School (JESS) is inside the community, and Ranches Primary School, a British-curriculum primary school, is in Arabian Ranches 2.
- Rent: a 3-bedroom villa costs about AED 359,000 a year on average, according to Property Monitor.
- Who it suits: a family that wants a home with a garden, and a school the children can reach without leaving the community.

How I can help

I guide buyers in Dubai, from choosing the property through to getting the keys and the visa. Send me a WhatsApp message and tell me how many children you have, what your budget is, and whether you will buy in cash or with a mortgage. After the first consultation I give you a quote, which depends on the sale process and the services you need.

This is general information. The rents are examples and change over time, so check prices and schools for yourself before you decide.
