Section 1 of the guide: Dubai Golden Visa and tax residency: why a visa does not change your tax position

A visa is an immigration status, not a tax status

Written by Usama Haj Yahia, founder of U810 Properties | Last updated: 18.11.2026

A Golden Visa gives you a ten-year UAE residence permit, together with an Emirates ID (details in the Golden Visa guide). It allows you to live in the UAE, open a bank account and get resident terms on a mortgage.

What it does not do:

- It does not by itself make you a UAE tax resident. The UAE has separate rules for tax residency, explained below.
- It does not by itself end your tax residency at home. Your country decides that under its own rules.

The full guide on the site: u810properties.com/en-guide-golden-visa-tax

Do you have a Golden Visa, or are you considering one?

Tell me about your situation, and we will check together what the visa gives you and what is important to ask the accountant.

Send a WhatsApp message →

This information is general, based on publications of the UAE Federal Tax Authority, and correct as of the update date. The section for tax residents of Israel is based on the Income Tax Ordinance and on the text of the treaty published by the Israeli Ministry of Finance. It is not tax advice and is not a substitute for an accountant or tax adviser. U810 is not an accountant or a tax adviser.