Section 4 of the guide: Buying an apartment in Dubai with a spouse or partner: ownership, visas and what happens later

Buying through a company or in your own names

Written by Usama Haj Yahia, founder of U810 Properties | Last updated: 13.10.2026

A property in Dubai can also be registered in the name of a company, not only in the names of private individuals. This decision affects several things at once: who is recorded in the Title Deed, which visa you can get through the property, what happens on inheritance, and how you report and pay tax in your country of residence. There is no single answer that suits everyone, so choose the route with a lawyer and an accountant before you sign the contract. On reporting in your country of residence, see "Do I need to report the property in my country of residence?".

The full guide on the site: u810properties.com/en-guide-partners

Buying together?

Tell me who you are buying with, and we will check together how to register the ownership and which visa each of you can get.

Send a WhatsApp message →

This information is general and correct as of the update date. It is not legal advice, and it does not replace reviewing your contract with a local lawyer.