Section 2 of the guide: Pushy salespeople in Dubai: how to protect yourself

How I cancelled

Written by Usama Haj Yahia, founder of U810 Properties | Last updated: 18.11.2026

Once I realised what had happened, I asked to cancel the new deal and go back to my original one. I went to the company's management and explained that I only work through my agent for this deal. The new deal was cancelled, and from then on, everything was back on track.

The full guide on the site: u810properties.com/en-guide-sales-pressure

Got an offer under pressure?

Send it to me before you sign, and we will go through it together.

Send a WhatsApp message →

This is my own experience. It does not replace legal advice or a review of your specific contract.